The Flow of Pass on Perfection
Participants will develop a concept in a round robin fashion with ideation then perfection.

No editing or correcting is allowed during ideation and additions build upon the last idea using "Yes and" thinking.

Someone voluntarily starts by sharing a short statement with a sticky note.
Participants one by one add on the last statement.
Participants repeat until everyone has passed with no action.
Participants one by one perfect by re-prioritizing and/or removing non-essentials with agreement from others.
Participants repeat until everyone has passed with no action to create a perfection result.
